To Whom It May Concern,

The panel investigating the Penobscot County Republican election of officers of January 17, 2013 will begin its investigation on May 4, 2013 at 9 Higgins Street in Augusta.

Please forward your written testimony concerning the controversy surrounding the Penobscot County Republican election of officers to Michelle Dale at michelle@mainegop.com or via U.S. Mail to 9 Higgins Street, Augusta, ME 04330.

Should the parties that this communication is addressed to (Deb Plowman, Bryan Daugherty, Traci Gauthier) have any questions, issues of concern or additional items they feel should be investigated, please include those in addition to your written testimony.

If you have written testimony from any individuals who were present at this meeting and witnessed something relevant to the investigation, please ask them to do the same.

Please know when submitting written testimony that your testimony will only be accepted if you agree to attend in-person to answer any questions the panel may have on May 4, 2013 or in any following panel meetings.

These live interviews will be conducted privately with the panel, and will not be made open to observers.

Sincerely,

Richard M. Cebra

Maine Republican Party Chairman
